

In the basement

Sarah- Minnesa

Bridget- Taylor W.

Scene

Bridget is standing at the top of the stairs looking down to Taylor.

SARAH

Don't forget the card table.

BRIDGET

Where did you get all this junk!

SARAH

This is my families house and that is all my families stuff.

BRIDGET

I don't see a card table.

SARAH

Forget about it. Just bring the punch bowl.

BRIDGET

(comes on stage with punch bowl)

Here you go. It already has spider webs on it.

SARAH

Perfect. So, we need to clean this out and set up the cookies. Did you get the peeps?

BRIDGET

I left them in the car.

SARAH

Bring them in with the apples. I will fill up a bucket with water. We need to get our costumes on and everything is ready.

BRIDGET

Does it ever get weird living in this big house by yourself? With all this stuff around?

SARAH

I don't really think about it.

BRIDGET

Not even this time of the year? Next week is the three year anniversary.

SARAH

I know it is. So, peeps?

BRIDGET

You are so brave. You know that. I really think that.

SARAH

Look Sarah. I appreciate the kind words but this is not something I want to talk about. So could we please just set up for the party?

BRIDGET

No. I think it will do you some good to talk about it with someone who cares about you.

SARAH

I have to deal with this the way that I can deal with it and the way that I do it is not talking about it. So, friend, could we please just pour the punch.
